

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, MAY, 1945

I. The Absorption of Sulphonamides in the Chick and the Canary, and Its Relationship to Antimalarial Activity. P. B. Marshall.....	1
II. A Method for the Determination of Analeptic Activity. L. G. Goodwin and P. B. Marshall.....	12
III. The Pharmacological Properties of Some Monoamidines. L. G. Goodwin and P. B. Marshall.....	16
IV. Stimulation and Depression of the Central Nervous System by Derivatives of Barbituric and Thiobarbituric Acids. P. K. Knoefel.....	26
V. Studies on the Estimation, Adsorption and Precipitation of Stilbamidine. J. D. Fulton and T. W. Goodwin.....	34
VI. The Effect of Light on Various Aromatic Diamidines in the Solid State. J. D. Fulton and T. W. Goodwin.....	42
VII. Additional Steroids with Luteoid Activity. Georges Masson and Hans Selye.....	46
VIII. The Toxicology of 1,2-Dichloroethane (Ethylene). III. Its Acute Toxicity and the Effect of Protective Agents. Leon A. Heppel, Paul A. Neal, T. L. Perrin, K. M. Endicott and V. T. Porterfield.....	53
IX. Phenol Conjugation. IV. Effect of Several Inhibitors. R. H. deMeio and R. I. Arnolt.....	64
X. Synthetic Anticonvulsants. 5,5-Disubstituted Hydantoins Containing a Hetero-atom in the Side Chain. H. Houston Merritt, Tracy J. Putnam and W. G. Bywater.....	67
XI. Susceptibility of Birds to Insulin as Compared with Mammals. K. K. Chen, Robert C. Anderson and Nila Maze.....	74
XII. The Chemical Basis of Marihuana Activity. S. Loewe.....	78
XIII. Effectiveness of Caffeine (1,3,7 Trimethylxanthine) against Fatigue. F. Huidobro and E. Amenbar.....	82

NUMBER 2, JUNE, 1945

XIV. Experimental and Clinical Studies on the Action of High Doses of Hykinone and Other Menadione Derivatives. Richard K. Richards, M.D., and Shepard Shapiro, M.D.....	93
XV. Studies on the General Pharmacology of Dibutoline. R. M. Featherstone and N. G. White.....	105
XVI. Effect of Route of Administration on Detoxication of Selenium by Arsenic. A. L. Moxon, C. R. Paynter and A. W. Halverson.....	115
XVII. The Antibacterial Activity of Penicillin in Experimental Infections of Mice with C. diphtheriae . N. Ercoli, M. N. Lewis, and Lucille J. Moench.....	120
XVIII. The Preparation of Extracts from Oxidized Marine and Other Oils For Reducing the Blood Pressure in Experimental and Human Chronic Hypertension. Arthur Grollman.....	128
XIX. Para Aminohippuric Acid; Its Pharmacodynamic Actions. Karl H. Beyer, Paul A. Mattis, Elizabeth A. Patch, and Horace F. Russo.....	136
XX. Toxicological Manifestations and Pathological Findings Following the Administration of Para Aminohippuric Acid. Paul A. Mattis, Karl H. Beyer, Samuel E. McKinney, and Elizabeth A. Patch.....	147
XXI. The Effects of Anesthesia on Glucose Tolerance in Man. Marvin Stern, M.D., E. M. Papper, M.D., Ernest Bueding, M.D., and E. A. Rovenstine, M.D.....	157

XXII. The Pharmacological Action of Benzamidines and Benzamidoximes. G. S. Dawes.....	160
XXIII. A Method for The Assay of Atropine Substitutes on The Salivary Secretion. E. Bülbbring and G. S. Dawes.....	177
XXIV. Comparison of the Pharmacologic Action of Quinidine and Dihydroquinidine. Charles C. Scott, Robert C. Anderson, and K. K. Chen.....	184
XXV. Some Effects of Tetraethyl Ammonium on the Mammalian Heart. George H. Acheson and Gordon K. Moe.....	189

NUMBER 3, JULY, 1945

XXVI. Pharmacologic Studies of a New Vasoconstrictor: 2-Naphthyl-(1')-Methyl-Imidazoline Hydrochloride (Privine or Naphazoline). III. An attempt to localize the seat of action in terms of adrenergic and cholinergic foci. Frederick F. Yonkman, Barbara Rennick and Henry L. Schwerma.....	197
XXVII. Therapeutic Activity and Toxicity of Soluthiazole and Solupyridine. R. Wien, J. Harrison, W. A. Freeman and G. E. Phillips.....	203
XXVIII. The Absorption and Excretion of Soluthiazole and Solupyridine. R. Wien and J. W. F. Hampton.....	211
XXIX. Soluthiazole and Solupyridine in the Treatment of Experimental Pyocyanal Infections of the Cornea. R. Wien and W. A. Freeman.....	219
XXX. Further Studies on the Detoxication of the Arsphenamines by Ascorbic Acid. Evan W. McChesney.....	222
XXXI. Dibutoline. I. Pharmacodynamic Actions of a Choline Ester with Atropine-like Properties. Clare G. Peterson and D. R. Peterson.....	236
XXXII. The Rate of Action of Sulfadiazine and Quinine on the Malarial Parasite, Plasmodium gallinaceum . Sterling Brackett, Emanuel Waletzky and Margaret Baker.....	254
XXXIII. Flavicin. II. An Antibacterial Substance Produced by an Aspergillus flavus . Milton T. Bush, Andres Goth and H. L. Dickison.....	262
XXXIV. The Biological Assay of Epinephrine. Roland H. Noel.....	278
XXXV. Quantitative Observations on Mercuhydri and Mercupurin. Walter Modell, Harry Gold and Donald A. Clarke.....	284
XXXVI. On the Action of Marfanil and Other Anticlostridial Agents on Amaerobic Blood Agar Plates. Charles O. Siebenmann and Helen Plummer.....	291

NUMBER 4, AUGUST, 1945

XXXVII. Studies on Analgesics. I. The Time-Action Curves of Morphine, Codeine, Dilaudid and Demerol by Various Methods of Administration. II. Analgesic Activity of Acetylsalicylic Acid and Aminopyrine. N. Ercoli and M. N. Lewis.....	301
XXXVIII. The Permeability of Mycobacteria to Sulfonamides and Sulfonamide-like Agents. Diran Yegian and Vera Budd.....	318
XXXIX. Studies on Shock Induced by Hemorrhage. XII. Some Properties of a Naturally Occurring Inhibitor of d -Amino Acid Oxidase. Margaret E. Greig and Wm. E. deTurk.....	325
XL. Antithyroid Studies. I. The Goitrogenic Activity of Some Thioureas, Pyrimidines and Miscellaneous Compounds. D. A. McGinty and W. G. Bywater.....	342
XLI. Toxicity Studies on Benzyl Benzoate and Related Benzyl Compounds. Boyd E. Graham and Marvin H. Kuizenga.....	358
XLII. The Destruction by Tyrosinase of the Irritant Principles of Poison Ivy and Related Toxicants. Irwin W. Sizer and Clemens E. Prokesch.....	363

XLIII. The Isolation of di(p-Chlorophenyl) Acetic Acid (DDA) from the Urine of Rabbits Poisoned with 2,2 bis (p-Chlorophenyl) 1,1,1 Trichlorethane (DDT). E. F. Stohlman and N. I. Smith.....	375
XLIV. A Comparative Study of the Effectiveness of 1,3,7 Trimethylxanthine and Certain Dimethylxanthines (1,3 Dimethylxanthine and 3,7 Dimethyl- xanthine) against Fatigue. F. Huidobro.....	380
XLV. Pharmacological Studies of Some Benzofuranone Derivatives. R. K. Richards, G. M. Everett and K. E. Kueter.....	387
XLVI. Index.....	000
