

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, MAY, 1954

I. The Action of Anesthetic Agents on the Loss of Potassium from Isolated Guinea Pig Auricles. William C. Holland.....	1
II. A Comparison of Hypnotic Agents. Louis Lasagna.....	9
III. The Fate of Dibenzylamine in the Body and the Role of Fat in its Duration of Action. B. B. Brodie, Lewis Aronow and Julius Axelrod.....	21
IV. Mode of Action of Antagonists to Curare. II. Anti-Curare Action of Hydroxyphenyltrialkylammonium Compounds in Avian Muscle. Edward W. Pelikan, Cedric M. Smith and Klaus R. Unna.....	30
V. Pharmacological Properties of Some Antimetabolites of Serotonin Having Unusually High Activity on Isolated Tissues. E. Shaw and D. W. Woolley.....	43
VI. The Effect of β -Diethylaminoethyl-diphenylpropylacetate (SKF No. 525A) on the Anticonvulsant Properties of Antiepileptic Drugs. Ewart A. Swinyard, Jack A. Madsen and Louis S. Goodman.....	54
VII. Estimation of Morphine in Biological Materials. L. A. Woods, J. Cochin, E. G. Fornefeld and M. H. Seevers.....	64
VIII. Plasma Levels, Urinary and Fecal Excretion of Morphine in Non-Tolerant and Tolerant Dogs. J. Cochin, J. Haggart, L. A. Woods and M. H. Seevers.....	74
IX. Species Differences in the Respiratory and Cardiovascular Response to Serotonin (5-Hydroxytryptamine). J. A. Schneider and F. F. Yonkman.....	84
X. Differences in Mode of Neuromuscular Blockade in a Series of Symmetric Bis-Quaternary Ammonium Salts. Stephen Thesleff and Klaus R. Unna.....	99
XI. Blood Sulfhydryl Changes in Methemoglobinemia, a Possible Factor in Protective Effects of Nitrite and Paraminopropiophenone. Erwin P. Vollmer and Mary M. Carey.....	114
XII. The Actions of Barbiturates on the Contractions of Voluntary Muscle. Charles P. Kraatz and Melvyn I. Gluckman.....	120

NUMBER 2, JUNE, 1954

XIII. The Effect of β -Diethylaminoethyl-diphenylpropylacetate Hydrochloride (SKF No. 525-A) on Hexobarbital. Leonard Cook, John J. Toner and Edwin J. Fellows.....	131
XIV. The In Vivo Liberation of Morphine from Codeine in Man. Gilbert J. Mannering, Arthur C. Dixon, Eugene M. Baker, III and Taiichi Asami.....	142
XV. The Action of Ornithogalum Umbellatum on the Heart. Russell A. Waud.....	147
XVI. Studies on the Pharmacology of N-Allylnormorphine. Charles A. Winter, Peter D. Orahovats, Lars Flataker, Edward G. Lehman and Jane T. Lehman.....	152
XVII. The Influence of Pentobarbital on the Inotropic Responses of the Isolated Frog Heart to Epinephrine and Acetylcholine. Walter W. Baker.....	161
XVIII. The Effect of the Intravenous Injection of DFP and Atropine on the Level of Free Acetylcholine in the Cerebral Cortex of the Rabbit. Moritz Michaelis, Jacob E. Finesinger, F. de Balbian Verster and R. W. Erickson.....	169
XIX. Ascorbic Acid in Aromatic Hydroxylation. III. Effect of Ascorbic Acid on Hydroxylation of Acetanilide, Aniline and Antipyrine In Vivo . Julius Axelrod, Sidney Udenfriend and Bernard B. Brodie.....	176
XX. Diethylbutanediol, a Convulsant Homologue of the Depressant, Diethylpropanediol. I. H. Slater, D. E. Leary and P. E. Dresel.....	182

XXI. The Interaction of Barbiturates with Serum Albumin and its Possible Relation to their Disposition and Pharmacological Actions. Leo R. Goldbaum and Paul K. Smith.....	197
XXII. The Distribution of a New Central Convulsant: 10-(2-Dimethylamino-propyl)-9-Acridone. S. E. Mayer and J. A. Bain.....	210
XXIII. Anesthesia. XLIV. The Local Anesthetic Action of Hydroxy-Lidocaine Hydrochloride. John C. Krantz, Jr., Go Lu and W. Edward O'Malley..	224
XXIV. The Action of Decamethonium on the Isolated Rabbit Lumbrical Muscle. D. J. Jenden, K. Kamijo and D. B. Taylor.....	229
XXV. Facilitation of Ganglionic Transmission Following Inhibition of Cholinesterase by DFP. Duncan A. Holaday, Kazuya Kamijo and George B. Koelle.....	241

NUMBER 3, JULY, 1954

XXVI. The Action of Some Enzyme Inhibitors on the Isolated Rabbit Auricle. E. A. Gardner and A. Farah.....	255
XXVII. Dibenzamine Blockade in Strips of Rabbit Aorta and its Use in Differentiating Receptors. Robert F. Furchgott.....	265
XXVIII. The Diuretic Activity of Isocytosines. C. G. Van Arman.....	285
XXIX. The Action of Mephenesin and Other Interneuron Depressants on the Brain Stem. Ellen Eva King and Klaus R. Unna.....	293
XXX. The Action of 3-Hydroxyphenyldimethylethylammonium (Tensilon) on Neuromuscular Transmission in the Frog. W. L. Nastuk and J. T. Alexander.....	302
XXXI. Locus of Emetic Action of Morphine and Hydergine in Dogs. S. C. Wang and Vincent V. Glaviano.....	329
XXXII. Effect of Adenosine Analogs on Isolated Intestine and Uterus. Enrico Mihich, Donald A. Clarke and Frederick S. Philips.....	335
XXXIII. Di-Ethyl Ether Analgesia: A Detailed Description of the First Stage of Ether Anesthesia in Man. Joseph F. Artusio, Jr.....	343
XXXIV. Action of Nicotine and of the "Ganglioplegiques Centraux" on the Electrical Activity of the Brain. V. G. Longo, G. P. Von Berger and D. Bovet	349
XXXV. The Effect of N-Allylnormorphine upon the Antidiuretic Action of Morphine. Charles A. Winter, C. Elizabeth Gaffney and Lars Flataker.....	360
XXXVI. Pharmacology of Sixty-four Cardiac Glycosides and Aglycones. K. K. Chen and Francis G. Henderson.....	365

NUMBER 4, AUGUST, 1954

XXXVII. The Determination of Probenecid (Benemid) in Body Fluids. Elizabeth K. Tillson, Grace S. Schuchardt, Jacqueline K. Fishman and Karl H. Beyer	385
XXXVIII. Autonomic Blocking Compounds. III. The Ganglion Blocking and Parasympatholytic Actions of a Series of Quaternary Ammonium Derivatives Containing the Phenothiazine Nucleus. Martin M. Winbury, Donald L. Cook and W. E. Hambourger.....	395
XXXIX. The Effect of N-Allylnormorphine upon the Toxicity of Morphine. Charles M. Gruber, Jr.....	404
XL. The Effect of N-Allylnormorphine in the Presence of Secobarbital. Charles M. Gruber, Jr.....	409
XLI. The Determination and Physiological Disposition of Milontin (N-Methyl- α -Phenylsuccinimide). Anthony J. Glazko, Wesley A. Dill, Loretta M. Wolf and Charles A. Miller.....	413
XLII. Phenobarbital: Studies of Elimination, Accumulation, Tolerance, and Dosage Schedules. Thomas C. Butler, Collins Mahaffee and William J. Waddell.....	425

XLIII. The Effect of Nalorphine on the Respiration of Dogs Anesthetized with Pentobarbital Sodium. Arturo Vivante, Frederick F. Kao and Julius Belford	436
XLIV. Drugs Preventing Motion Sickness at Sea. S. W. Handford, T. E. Cone, Jr., Herman I. Chinn and Paul K. Smith	447
XLV. The Action of Andromedotoxin on the Carotid Sinus in Dogs. Neil C. Moran, Marjorie E. Perkins and Arthur P. Richardson	454
XLVI. Veratridine Blockade of the Carotid Sinus Pressoreceptors. Neil C. Moran, Marjorie E. Perkins and Arthur P. Richardson	459
XLVII. The Pharmacologic Activity of the Optical Isomers of Isopropylarterenol (Isuprel) Compared with that of the Optically Inactive Analog (1-(3,4-Dihydroxyphenyl)-2-Isopropylaminoethane HCl. A. M. Lands, F. P. Luduena and B. F. Tullar	469
XLVIII. Effects of Acetylcholine on Mechanical and Electrical Properties of Isolated Rabbit Auricle: Their Relationship to the Genesis of Arrhythmias. Theodore C. West, Leslie D. Turner and Ted A. Loomis	475
XLIX. Toxicity in Mice of New Secondary Nitrogen Mustards. Alexander M. Rutenburg, Lester Persky, Orrie M. Friedman and Arnold M. Seligman	483
