

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, JANUARY, 1949

| | |
|--|-----|
| I. Mechanism of Dibenamine Protection against Cyclopropane-Epinephrine Cardiac Arrhythmias. Mark Nickerson and George M. Nomaguchi . . . | 1 |
| II. The Distribution in Rabbit Tissues of Intravenously Injected Iodine as Shown by the Radioisotope, I 130. Walter Mann, William F. Bale, Harold C. Hodge and Stafford L. Warren | 12 |
| III. Studies on Diethylaminoethanol. I. Physiological Disposition and Action on Cardiac Arrhythmias. Benjamin Rosenberg, Herbert J. Kayden, Philip A. Lief, Lester C. Mark, J. Murray Steele and Bernard B. Brodie | 18 |
| IV. The Antagonism of Curare by Congo Red and Related Compounds. C. J. Kensler | 23 |
| V. The Pharmacological Properties of Three New Antihistaminic Drugs. A. M. Lands, James O. Hoppe, O. H. Siegmund and F. P. Luduena | 45 |
| VI. A Simple Assay for Parasympatholytic Agents Using the Lacrimation Response in Rats. Martin M. Winbury, Dorothy M. Schmalgemeier and W. E. Hambourger | 53 |
| VII. The Effect of 3-Acetylpyridine and Niacinamide on the Perfused Heart. K. Braun | 58 |
| VIII. The Effect of Ethanol and Various Metabolites on Fluoroacetate Poisoning. John O. Hutchens, Harold Wagner, Betty Podolsky and T. M. McMahon | 62 |
| IX. The Histamine Activity of Some β -Aminoethyl Heterocyclic Nitrogen Compounds. Henry M. Lee and Reuben G. Jones | 71 |
| X. Studies on the Toxicity and Mechanism of Action of p-Nitrophenyl Diethyl Thionophosphate (Parathion). Kenneth P. DuBois, John Doull, Paul R. Salerno and Julius M. Coon | 79 |
| XI. The Effect of 2,3 Dimercapto Propanol (BAL) on the Toxicity of 2-Methyl-1,4-Naphthoquinone to Mice. Dan A. Richert and Allan D. Bass | 92 |
| XII. Prolongation of Curarizing and Anti-Curarizing Action. Harold F. Chase, B. K. Bhattacharya and J. L. Schmidt | 95 |
| XIII. The Curariform Activity of N-Methyloxycanthine. David F. Marsh, D. A. Herring and Clark K. Sleeth | 100 |
| XIV. The Effect of Anesthetics on the Uptake of Radioactive Phosphorus by Human Erythrocytes. V. Pertzoff and C. L. Gemmill | 106 |

NUMBER 2, FEBRUARY, 1949

| | |
|---|-----|
| XV. Inhibition of Succinic Oxidase System by Meperidine, Methadon, Morphine and Codeine. Daniel T. Watts | 117 |
| XVI. The Pharmacology of β -Piperidinoethyl Phenyl- α -thienylglycolate HCl. Raymond W. Pickering, Benedict E. Abreu, James Y. P. Chen, Richard C. Burnett and Warren C. Bostick | 122 |
| XVII. The Acute Pharmacology of Methyl-bis(2-Chloroethyl) Amine (HN2). Carlton C. Hunt and Frederick S. Philips | 131 |
| XVIII. Nicotine in Blood in Relation to Smoking. William A. Wolff, Marina A. Hawkins and W. E. Giles | 145 |
| XIX. Diatropine Derivatives as Proof that d-Tubocurarine is a Blocking Moiety Containing Twin Atropine-acetylcholine Prosthetic Groups. K. K. Kimura, Klaus Unna and Carl C. Pfeiffer | 149 |
| XX. Comparative Pharmacology of the Optical Isomers of Arterenol. F. P. Luduena, Estelle Ananenko, O. H. Siegmund and Lloyd C. Miller | 155 |
| XXI. Effects of Tetraethylammonium Bromide on the Parasympathetic Neuroeffector System. J. V. Luco and J. Marconi | 171 |

|--|-----|
| XXII. The Adrenergic Blocking Effect of Certain β -Chloroethyl Amines. Carlton C. Hunt..... | 177 |
| XXIII. The Antidiuretic Effect of 3-Hydroxy-cinchoninic Acid Derivatives. E. K. Marshall, Jr., and K. C. Blanchard..... | 185 |
| XXIV. γ -Dichroine, the Antimalarial Alkaloid of Ch'ang Shan. Francis G. Henderson, Charles L. Rose, Paul N. Harris and K. K. Chen..... | 191 |
| XXV. Heinz Body Formation by Certain Chemical Agents. Stewart H. Webster, Ervin J. Liljegren and David J. Zimmer..... | 201 |
| XXVI. The Antifilarial Action of Cyanine Dyes. Lawrence Peters, Ernest Bueding, Arthur D. Valk, Jr., Aeme Higashi and Arnold D. Welch..... | 212 |
| XXVII. A Pharmacologic Comparison of Hexaethyl Tetraphosphate (HETP) and Tetraethyl Pyrophosphate (TEPP) with Physostigmine, Neostigmine and DFP. Paul R. Salerno and Julius M. Coon..... | 240 |
| XXVIII. Toxic and Pathologic Effects of Xylidine in the Fasting and Non-fasting States. Samuel S. Spicer, Benjamin Highman and A. Ralph Monaco... | 256 |
| XXIX. Studies on the Toxicity and Pharmacological Action of p-Dimethylaminobenzenediazo Sodium Sulfonate (DAS). Roy G. Herrmann and Kenneth P. DuBois..... | 262 |
| XXX. The Effect of p-Dimethylaminobenzenediazo Sodium Sulfonate (DAS) on the Enzymatic Reactions of Intermediary Carbohydrate Metabolism. Roy G. Herrmann and Kenneth P. DuBois..... | 272 |
| NUMBER 3, MARCH, 1949 | |
| XXXI. John Auer—1875-1948..... | 285 |
| XXXII. A Comparison of the Effectiveness of Dihydroergotamine (DHE-45) and Dihydroergocornine (DHO-180) in the Prevention of Cardiac Irregularities During Cyclopropane Anesthesia. Willard D. Bennett, Karl-Gustav Dhuner and O. Sidney Orth..... | 287 |
| XXXIII. The Effect of Topically Applied Antihistaminic Drugs on the Mammalian Capillary Bed. Thomas J. Haley and D. Harriette Harris..... | 293 |
| XXXIV. Studies of the Actions of 4-Amino-Pteroylglutamic Acid in Rats and Mice. Frederick S. Philips and John B. Thiersch..... | 303 |
| XXXV. The Protective Action of Various Agents Against Chloroform-Epinephrine Ventricular Fibrillation. R. A. Huggins, R. A. Morse, C. A. Handley and M. La Forge..... | 312 |
| XXXVI. Effects of Morphine, Codeine, and Dilaudid on Blood Flow. R. A. Huggins, C. A. Handley and M. La Forge..... | 318 |
| XXXVII. Anesthetic Properties of Sodium-Allyl 5-5-(1-Methylbutyl)-2-Thiobarbiturate (Surital) and Certain Other Thiobarbiturates in Dogs. J. B. Wyngaarden, L. A. Woods, R. Ridley and M. H. Seevers..... | 322 |
| XXXVIII. Cardiovascular Toxicity of Thiobarbiturates: Comparison of Thiopental and 5-Allyl-5-(1-Methylbutyl)-2-Thiobarbiturate (Surital) in Dogs. L. A. Woods, J. B. Wyngaarden, B. Rennick and M. H. Seevers..... | 328 |
| XXXIX. The Chemotherapeutic and Pharmacological Properties of the L-Ephedrine Salt of Penicillin G (Tersavin). E. Grunberg, L. O. Randall and R. J. Schnitzer..... | 336 |
| XL. Antagonists for Fatal and Non-Fatal Doses of Quinine Intravenously in Depressed Circulatory States and in Hyperthermia. Robert H. Dreisbach..... | 347 |
| XLI. Comparative Central Depressant Actions of Some 5-Phenyl-5-Alkenyl Barbituric Acids. Gordon A. Alles and Charles H. Ellis..... | 352 |
| XLII. Reduction and Oxidation of Chloral Hydrate by Isolated Tissues in Vitro . Thomas C. Butler..... | 360 |

|---|-----|
| XLIII. Potentiation of Effects of Epinephrine by Flavonoid ("Vitamin P"-like) Compounds. Relation of Structure to Activity. William G. Clark and T. A. Geissman..... | 363 |
| XLIV. Development of Resistance to Chlorguanide (Paludrine) During Treatment of Infections with Plasmodium Cynomolgi . L. H. Schmidt, Clara Sesler Genther, Rochelle Fradkin and Wanda Squires..... | 382 |
| XLV. The in Vitro Protection of Epinephrine by Flavonoids. Robert H. Wilson and Floyd DeEds..... | 399 |
| XLVI. Central Impairment of Sympathetic Reflexes by 8-Aminoquinolines. Gordon K. Moe, Braulio Peralta and Maurice H. Seevers..... | 407 |
| XLVII. The Altered Blood-Pressure Response after Adrenolytic Drugs and Large Doses of Sympathomimetic Amines. I. A. Coret and H. B. van Dyke... | 415 |

NUMBER 4, APRIL, 1949

|---|-----|
| XLVIII. Effects of Feeding Uranium Nitrate Hexahydrate in the Diets of Breeding White Rats. Elliott A. Maynard, Challiss Randall, Harold C. Hodge and James K. Scott..... | 421 |
| XLIX. Pharmacological Studies on the Causative Agent of Canine Hysteria. Jack L. Radomski and Geoffrey Woodward..... | 429 |
| L. The Effect of Hypoxia on the in Vivo Formation of Methemoglobin by Aniline and Nitrite. S. S. Spicer and P. A. Neal..... | 433 |
| LI. Effect of Convulsant and Anticonvulsant Agents on the Activity of Carbonic Anhydrase. Clara Torda and Harold G. Wolf..... | 444 |
| LII. Adrenergic Blocking Drugs. IV. Antagonism of Epinephrine and Histamine with 2-(2-Biphenyloxy)-2'-Chlorodiethylamine Derivatives. Earl R. Loew and Audrey Micetich..... | 448 |
| LIII. A Study on Mescaline in Human Subjects. Kurt Salomon, Beverly Wescott Gabrio and Thomas Thale..... | 455 |
| LIV. The absorption of Phenylmercuric Acetate from the Vaginal Tract of the Rat. Edwin P. Laug and Frieda M. Kunze..... | 460 |
| LV. A Quantitative Method for the Determination of Anti-Histaminic Compounds Containing the Pyridine Radical. Ely Perlman..... | 465 |
| LVI. Determination of Gallium in Biological Materials. H. C. Dudley..... | 482 |
| LVII. Studies of the Toxic Action of Gallium. H. C. Dudley and Milton D. Levine..... | 487 |
| LVIII. The Distribution of Radioactivity in Rats after Administration of C ¹⁴ -labeled Methadone. Henry W. Elliott, Frances N-H. Chang, Ismail A. Abdou and Hamilton H. Anderson..... | 494 |
| LIX. An Investigation of the Acute Toxicity of the Optical Isomers of Arterenol and Epinephrine. James O. Hoppe, D. K. Seppelin and A. M. Lands... | 502 |
| LX. Studies on the Fate of Nicotine in the Body. VI. Observations on the Relative Rate of Elimination of Nicotine by the Dog, Cat, Rabbit and Mouse. P. S. Larson, J. K. Finnegan and H. B. Haag..... | 506 |
| LXI. The Control of Experimental Pneumonia with Penicillin. III. Inhalation Therapy of Established Pneumonia, as Related to Blood and Lung Levels. Catherine E. Wilson, Stanley H. Durlacher and Eleanor A. Bliss | 509 |
| LXII. The Relationship between Cholinesterase Inhibition and Function in a Neuroeffector System. Walter F. Riker and W. Clarke Wescoe..... | 515 |
| LXIII. Index..... | 529 |
