

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, SEPTEMBER 1957

I. Effects of Reserpine and Hydralazine on Carotid and Splanchnic Nerve Activity and Blood Pressure. A. S. Dontas.....	1
II. Action and Metabolism of Chlorpromazine Sulfoxide in Man. John C. Davidson, Luther L. Terry and Albert Sjoerdsma.....	8
III. Differentiation Between Receptors for Serotonin and Tryptamine by Means of the Exquisite Specificity of Antimetabolites. D. W. Woolley and E. Shaw.....	13
IV. A Quantitative Study of the Action of Synthetic Oxytocin on the Pregnant Human Uterus. R. Caldeyro-Barcia, Y. Sica-Blanco, J. J. Poseiro, V. González-Panizza, C. Méndez-Bauer, C. Fielitz, H. Alvarez, S. V. Pose and C. H. Hendricks.....	18
V. Studies on Substituted Dithiooxamides, Diphosphopyridine Nucleotide-linked Dehydrogenase Inhibitors. I. General Toxicity and Site of Action. James G. Miller, Maynard B. Chenoweth and Theodore M. Brody..	32
VI. Studies on Substituted Dithiooxamides, Diphosphopyridine Nucleotide-linked Dehydrogenase Inhibitors. II. On the Mechanism of Action. James G. Miller and Theodore M. Brody.....	43
VII. Secretion of DDT Metabolites in the Bile of Rats. Edward G. Burns, Paul A. Dahm and Donald A. Lindquist.....	55
VIII. The Physiological Disposition of Oxyphenonium Bromide (Antrenyl) and Related Compounds. Ruth Mitchell Levine and Byron B. Clark...	63
IX. The Effect of Atropine and Morphine on Respiration. Stuart S. Steinberg, J. Weldon Bellville and John C. Seed.....	71
X. The Topical Action of Morphine, Levorphanol (Levorphan) and the Morphine Antagonist Levallophan on the Unanesthetized Rabbit's Brain. H. Gangloff and Marcel Monnier.....	78
XI. Marked Potentiation in Mammalian Toxicity from Simultaneous Administration of Two Anticholinesterase Compounds. John P. Frawley, Henry N. Fuyat, Ernest C. Hagan, Jane R. Blake and O. Garth Fitzhugh.....	96
XII. The Inhibitory Action of Nalorphine on the Enzymatic N-Demethylation of Narcotic Drugs. Julius Axelrod and Joseph Cochin	107
XIII. Some Pharmacologic Properties of a New Series of Cholinesterase Inhibitors. W. J. Fleming, J. P. Long, R. J. Wulf and R. M. Featherstone.	113
XIV. Metabolic Disposition of Ethyl Trichloramate. Anthony J. Glazko, Wesley A. Dill, Loretta M. Wolf and Anna Kazenko	119
XV. Interaction of Serotonin and Lysergic Acid Diethylamide in the Siamese Fighting Fish. David L. Trout.....	130
XVI. The Depressant Action of Ethyl Trichloramate on the Central Nervous System. Graham Chen, Charles R. Ensor and Barbara Bohner	136
XVII. Effects of Chlorpromazine on the Acquisition and Extinction of an Avoidance Response in the Rat. Robert Ader and Daniel W. Clink.....	144

NUMBER 2, OCTOBER, 1957

XVIII. General Pharmacological Properties of 21-Hydroxy-pregnandione Sodium Succinate, an Intravenous Anesthetic Agent. P. K. Das and R. B. Arora.	149
XIX. Carbonic Anhydrase Inhibition VII. Carbonic Anhydrase Inhibition and Anticonvulsant Effect. William D. Gray, Thomas H. Maren, George M. Sisson and Frank H. Smith	160

XX. Observations on the Initial Hypertensive Response to Reserpine. Edward F. Domino and Richard H. Rech	171
XXI. A Comparison of the Effectiveness of Adrenergic Blocking Drugs in Inhibiting the Cardiac Actions of Sympathomimetic Amines. Marion deV. Cotten, Neil C. Moran and Phyllis E. Stopp	183
XXII. The Potentiation of Histamine by Imidazoleacrylcholine (Murexine) and Imidazolepropionylcholine (Dihydromurexine). I. I. A. Tabachnick and F. E. Roth	191
XXIII. Effects of Excitation-blocking Drugs and Sodium Deficiency on the Veratrine Electrical Response. Geraldine Kiebel and Alexander Sando	199
XXIV. A Pharmacologic and Toxicologic Study of a New Series of Antispasmodic Compounds with Special Reference to Structure and Pharmacologic Activity. Harold H. Bryant, Lloyd C. Felton and John C. Krantz, Jr.	210
XXV. Effects of Mercurial Diuretics on Renal Volume and Intrarenal Blood Flow. E. J. Cafruny	225
XXVI. Effects of Various Lactones and Related Compounds on Cation Transfer in Incubated Cold-stored Human Erythrocytes. J. B. Kahn, Jr.	234
XXVII. The Influence of Estrogens on the Electrolytes of the Rat Uterus. Sumner M. Kalman	252
XXVIII. Metabolism of Cysteamine. Richard A. Salvador, Clarke Davison and Paul K. Smith	258

NUMBER 3, NOVEMBER, 1957

XXIX. Effects of Reserpine on Spinal Cord Synaptic Transmission. Don W. Esplin and Dale G. Heaton	267
XXX. Pharmacologic Action of Hypoglycin A and B. K. K. Chen, Robert C. Anderson, Max C. McCowen and Paul N. Harris	272
XXXI. The Motor Nerve Terminal as the Primary Focus for Drug-induced Facilitation of Neuromuscular Transmission. Walter F. Riker, Jr., Jay Roberts, Frank G. Standaert and Hiroshi Fujimori	286
XXXII. Urinary Epinephrine and Levarterenol Excretion during Acute Sublethal Alcohol Intoxication in Dogs. Gerda I. Klingman and McC. Goodall	313
XXXIII. Effects of Pressor Amines and Ouabain on the Heart and Blood Pressure During Hypothermia. Marion deV. Cotten and Theodore G. Brown, Jr.	319
XXXIV. Effects of Dihydro-ouabain, Dihydrotigoxin and Dihydrodigitoxin on the Heart-lung Preparation of the Dog. Robert L. Vick, J. B. Kahn, Jr. and George H. Acheson	330
XXXV. Isolation and Crystallization of "Bound" Morphine from Urine of Human Addicts. James F. Fujimoto and E. Leong Way	340
XXXVI. The Relation of Piperazine Mono-quaternary Salt Structure to Activity Against Syphacia obvelata , a Mouse Pinworm. M. Harfenist, R. V. Fanelli, R. Baltzly, H. W. Brown, K. L. Hussey and K. K. Chan	347
XXXVII. A Preliminary Procedure for the Evaluation of Central Nervous System Depressants. William J. Kinnard, Jr. and C. Jelleff Carr	354
XXXVIII. Anesthesia. LV. The Pharmacologic Response to Hexafluorodiethyl Ether. John C. Krantz, Jr., Edward B. Truitt, Jr., Alfred S. C. Ling and Louise Speers	362
XXXIX. Pharmacology of a New Hypotensive Steroid: 17 α -Propyl-4,5 β -dihydro-19-nortestosterone. F. M. Sturtevant	369

NUMBER 4, DECEMBER, 1957

XL. Veratrine, Protoveratrine, and Andromedotoxin Arrhythmias in the Isolated Dog Heart. Henry H. Swain and Duncan A. McCarthy	379
--	-----

XLI. The Effects of Ouabain and Veratridine on Potassium Movement in the Isolated Guinea Pig Heart. Robert L. Vick and J. B. Kahn, Jr.....	389
XLII. The Action of Cardiac Glycosides on the Excitability and Conduction Velocity of the Mammalian Atrium. Carlos Méndez and Rafael Méndez.	402
XLIII. Inhibition of the Adrenergic Depressor Response. Bernard Levy and Raymond P. Ahlquist.....	414
XLIV. Studies on Derivatives of 2,2-Bis-(p -chlorophenyl)-1,1-dichloroethane (DDD, TDE) with Special Reference to their Effects on the Adrenal Cortex. Marvin J. Bleiberg and P. S. Larson.....	421
XLV. A Comparison of the Pharmacological Behavior of Chlormerodrin, Meralluride, Mersalyl and Mercuric Chloride in the Dog. R. H. Kessler, R. Lozano and R. F. Pitts.....	432
XLVI. Biochemorphology of Renal Tubular Transport: Halogenated Amino Acids and Derivatives. K. C. Huang and P. K. Knoefel.....	443
XLVII. Further Studies of the Excretion of Atropine- alpha -C ¹⁴ . S. C. Kalsner, J. H. Wills, J. D. Gabourel, R. E. Gosselin and C. F. Epes.....	449
XLVIII. Effects of Trimethadione on Synaptic Transmission in the Spinal Cord; Antagonism of Trimethadione and Pentylenetetrazol. Don W. Esplin and E. M. Curto.....	457
XLIX. Emetic Action of Nicotine and Lobeline. Robert J. Laffan and Herbert L. Borison.....	468
L. The Mechanism of Action of Ryanodine on Skeletal Muscle. Jacob J. Blum, Richard Creese, Donald J. Jenden and Norman W. Scholes.....	477
LI. Hydroxypropyl Theophylline: A Pharmacological Comparison with other Theophylline Preparations. Franklin E. Roth, Martin M. Winbury and William M. Govier.....	487
LII. Individual Pupillary Reactions to Certain Centrally Acting Drugs in Man. V. R. Carlson.....	501
