

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, SEPTEMBER, 1950

I. Pain Relief with Hypnotic Doses of Barbiturates and a Hypothesis. Arthur S. Keats and Henry K. Beecher.....	1
II. The Effect of Various Anesthetic Agents on Inorganic Serum Phosphorus Levels. Francis F. Foldes, Anna J. Murphy and B. Craig Wilson.....	14
III. Pharmacologic Action of Basic Esters of p-Xenylacetic and p-Xenylglycolic Acid—New Antispasmodic Drugs. A. M. Lands, James O. Hoppe, John R. Lewis and Estelle Ananenko.....	19
IV. The Anticonvulsant Action of 2, 2-Diethyl 1, 3-Propanediol (DEP) and Some of Its Homologues and Esters. F. M. Berger and J. B. Ludwig.....	27
V. Cochlear Signs of Streptomycin Intoxication. Joseph E. Hawkins, Jr.....	38
VI. The Action of Various Drugs on Certain Phases of in Vitro Anabolism. Gordon R. McKinney.....	45
VII. Effects in Albino Rats of Dihydrogenated Derivatives of the Dimethylpyruvic Acid Group of Ergot Alkaloids as Manifested by Thermal Reactions and Oxygen Utilization. J. E. Roberts, Leo C. Massopust, Jr. and A. R. Buchanan.....	51
VIII. The Chronic Toxicities of Technical Benzene Hexachloride and its Alpha, Beta and Gamma Isomers. O. G. Fitzhugh, A. A. Nelson and J. P. Frawley.....	59
IX. The Effect of Salicylate upon Pain Sensitivity. James E. Birren, Harold B. Schapiro and John H. Miller.....	67
X. Pharmacologic Data on DL-2-Amino-1-(p-Methylphenyl)-Propane. Edwin J. Fellows, Edward Macko and A. James Fendrick.....	72
XI. The Fate of Intrathecal Procaine and the Spinal Fluid Level Required for Surgical Anesthesia. Martin Helrich, E. M. Papper, Bernard B. Brodie, Marvin Fink and E. A. Rovenstine.....	78
XII. Anticurare Action of Phenolic Quaternary Ammonium Salts. Lowell O. Randall.....	83
XIII. The Effect of a Number of Aralkylamines on the Oxidation of Tyramine by Amine Oxidase. Edwin J. Fellows and Frederick Bernheim.....	94
XIV. The Pharmacology of N, N-Dimethyl 2-Chloro-2-Phenylethylamine. Frank C. Ferguson, Jr. and W. Clarke Wescoe.....	100
XV. Inhibition of the Kidney Succinic Dehydrogenase System by Mercurial Diuretics. Carroll A. Handley and P. S. Lavik.....	115

NUMBER 2, OCTOBER, 1950

XVI. Pharmacological and Toxicological Studies on 2-(N-p'-tolyl-N-(m'-Hydroxyphenyl)-Aminomethyl)-Imidazoline (C-7337), a New Adrenergic Blocking Agent. J. H. Trapold, M. R. Warren and R. A. Woodbury.....	119
XVII. Addiction Liabilities of Morphinan, 6-Methyldihydromorphine and Dihydrocodeinone. H. F. Fraser and Harris Isbell.....	128
XVIII. Local Antihistaminic Action. James P. Hensen.....	136
XIX. An Estimation of the Activity of Analgetic Materials. D. D. Bonnycastle and C. S. Leonard.....	141
XX. The Antiaccelerator Cardiac Action of Quinine and Quinidine. Otto Krayer.....	146
XXI. A Comparison of the Anticonvulsant Actions of some Phenylhydantoins and their Corresponding Phenylacetylureas. Ewart A. Swinyard and James E. P. Toman.....	151
XXII. The Histochemical Differentiation of Types of Cholinesterases and their Localizations in Tissues of the Cat. George B. Koelle.....	158

XXIII. The Effect of Inhibition of Specific and Non-Specific Cholinesterase on the Motility of the Isolated Ileum. George B. Koelle, Ethol S. Koelle and Jonas S. Friedenwald	180
XXIV. Conversion of Acetylsulfonamides to the Unconjugated Form by the Chicken Kidney. James M. Shaffer and Raymond N. Bieter	192
XXV. Evaluation of Curarizing Drugs in Man. IV. Tri-(Diethylaminoethoxy)-1, 2, 3 Benzene (Flaxedil). K. R. Unna, E. W. Pelikan, D. W. Macfarlane and M. S. Sadove	201
XXVI. The Renal Clearance and Plasma Protein Binding of Aureomycin in Man. Jonas H. Sirota and Abraham Saltzman	210
XXVII. The Rate of Penetration of Barbituric Acid Derivatives into the Brain. Thomas C. Butler	219
XXVIII. Studies on the Inter-Relationship of Certain Cholinergic Compounds. IV. Anti-Curare Action in Anesthetized Man. Joseph F. Artusio, Jr., Walter F. Riker, Jr. and W. Clarke Wescoe	227
XXIX. The Action of Veriloid upon the Isolated Mammalian Heart. Norman S. Stearns and George L. Maison	238
XXX. The Effects of Mercurial Compounds on Invertase. C. L. Gemmill and E. M. Bowman	244
NUMBER 3, NOVEMBER, 1950
XXXI. Studies on Autonomic Blockade. III. Effect of High Spinal Anesthesia on the Vasodepressor Action of Veratrum in Human Subjects. N. S. Assali and Harry Prystowsky	251
XXXII. A Polarographic Method for the Determination of Digitoxin and Gitoxin and its Application to Pharmacological Studies. James G. Hilton	258
XXXIII. Observations on Several Cyclohexyl—and Phenyl—Alkylamines. Edwin J. Fellows, Edward Macko and Richard A. McLean	267
XXXIV. The Enzymatic Mechanism of Barbiturate Action. H. Persky, M. S. Goldstein and R. Levine	273
XXXV. Reversal of the Depressor Action of N-Isopropylarterenol (Isuprel) by Ergotamine and Ergotoxine. A. M. Lands, F. P. Luduena, J. I. Grant, Estelle Ananenko and M. L. Tainter	284
XXXVI. The Pharmacological Activity of the Ring Methyl Substituted Phenisopropylamines. David F. Marsh and D. A. Herring	298
XXXVII. Theophylline Blood Levels after Oral, Rectal and Intravenous Administration, and Correlation with Diuretic Action. Edward B. Truitt, Jr., Victor A. McKusick and John C. Krantz, Jr.	309
XXXVIII. The Effect of 2,2-Diethyl 1,3-Propanediol (A New Anticonvulsant) on Spinal Cord Reflexes. Irwin H. Slater, John F. O'Leary and Daniel E. Leary	316
XXXIX. Atropine-Like Action of Alpha, Alpha-Diphenyl-Gamma-Dimethylaminovaleramide HCl (BL 139). Ralph J. Cazort	325
XL. A Pharmacological Investigation of 2,5-Bis-(3-Diethyl-Aminopropylamino) Benzoquinone-Bis-Benzylchloride (Win 2747): A New Curarimimetic Drug. James O. Hoppe	333
XLI. The Digitalis-Like Action of Cryptograndoside A and B. K. K. Chen, Robert C. Anderson and Francis G. Henderson	346
XLII. An Experimental Study of Cocaine Intoxication and its Treatment. John E. Steinhaus and Arthur L. Tatum	351
XLIII. The Elimination of d-Tubocurarine in the Rat. E. F. van Maanen	362
XLIV. Some Observations on the Mechanism of Toxic Action of Ricin. John F. Thomson	370

CONTENTS

Library of the Psychiatric Institute
722 West 168 Street
New York, New York

- XLV. Evaluation of Curarizing Drugs in Man. V. Antagonism to Curarizing Effects of d-Tubocurarine by Neostigmine, m-Hydroxy Phenyltrimethylammonium and m-Hydroxy Phenylethyldimethylammonium. D. W. Macfarlane, E. W. Pelikan and K. R. Unna. 382

NUMBER 4, DECEMBER, 1950

- XLVI. The Effect of Several New Antihistaminic Drugs upon the Mammalian Capillary Bed. Thomas J. Haley and Margaret R. Andem. 393
- XLVII. The Nitrogen Mustard-Like Actions of 2,4,6-Tris (Ethylenimino)-S-Triazine and Other Bis (Ethylenimines). Frederick S. Philips and John B. Thiersch. 398
- XLVIII. A Short Term Chronic Toxicity Test. Carl C. Smith. 408
- XLIX. Studies on Five Long-Acting Choleretics. Donald L. Cook, Robert G. Bianchi, W. E. Hambourger and D. M. Green. 421
- L. The Toxic Effects, Excretion and Distribution of Lithium Chloride. Jack L. Radomski, Henry N. Fuyat, Arthur A. Nelson and Paul K. Smith. 429
- LI. Effects of Magnesium Ion on the Heart and on its Response to Digoxin. John B. Stanbury and Alfred Farah. 445
- LII. Studies on the Inter-Relationship of Certain Cholinergic Compounds. V. The Significance of the Actions of the 3-Hydroxy Phenyltrimethylammonium Ion on Neuromuscular Function. Walter F. Riker, Jr. and W. Clarke Wescoe. 454
- LIII. Preliminary Studies on the "Reversed Carboxyl" Analogue of Acetylcholine. Wm. B. Bass, F. W. Schueler, R. M. Featherstone and E. G. Gross. 465
- LIV. Relative Experimental Coronary Vasodilator Potencies of Papaverine and its Ethyl Analogue, Ethaverine (Diquinol, Perparin). Claude V. Winder, Richard W. Thomas and Oliver Kamm. 482
- LV. Studies on Synthetic Curarizing Agents. Charles A. Winter and Jane T. Lehman. 489
- LVI. Chronic and Acute Effects of Mercurhydrin and Thiomerin on Renal Tubular Function in the Dog. Martha J. Barrett. 502
- LVII. Index. 511
