

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, SEPTEMBER, 1954

I. Unilateral Renal Adrenergic Blockade and the Renal Response to Vaso-pressor Agents and to Hemorrhage. Carroll A. Handley and John H. Moyer.....	1
II. Autonomic Pharmacology of the Chicken with Particular Reference to Adrenergic Blockade. Stewart C. Harvey, E. G. Copen, D. W. Eskelson, S. R. Graff, L. D. Poulsen and D. L. Rasmussen.....	8
III. The Effect of Nine Cardiac Steroids and Epinephrine on the Respiration of Heart Muscle Slices. Roy G. Herrmann, Gene E. Flamboe and K. K. Chen.....	23
IV. Studies of the Toxicity and of the Enzyme Kinetics of Ethyl p-Nitrophenyl Thionobenzene Phosphonate (EPN). Harold C. Hodge, Elliott A. Maynard, Leon Hurwitz, Victor DiStefano, William L. Downs, Chester K. Jones and Harvey J. Blanchet, Jr.....	29
V. Plasma Binding of Thiopental in the Nephrectomized Rabbit. J. D. Taylor, R. K. Richards, Jeanne C. Davin and Jane Asher.....	40
VI. Mechanism of the Potentiating Action of $\beta$ -Diethylaminoethyl Diphenylpropylacetate. Julius Axelrod, Jules Reichenthal and Bernard B. Brodie.....	49
VII. Inhibitory Effects of $\beta$ -Diethylaminoethyl Diphenylpropylacetate on a Variety of Drug Metabolic Pathways In Vitro . Jack R. Cooper, Julius Axelrod and Bernard B. Brodie.....	55
VIII. Pharmacologic Properties of N-Ethyl-3-Piperidyl Benzilate Methobromide (JB-323), a Potent Antispasmodic Agent. James Y. P. Chen.....	64
IX. Cardiovascular, Emetic and Pharmacodynamic Properties of Certain Veratrum Alkaloids. Benedict E. Abreu, Alice B. Richards, William M. Alexander and Lawrence C. Weaver.....	73
X. Effect of Adrenalectomy, Hydrocortisone Acetate and Desoxycorticosterone Acetate on Brain Excitability and Electrolyte Distribution in Mice. Paola S. Timiras, Dixon M. Woodbury and Louis S. Goodman....	80
XI. The Differential Actions of Potassium on the Therapeutic and Toxic Effects of Ouabain. Solomon Garb and Vittorio Venturi.....	94
XII. Antitussive Compounds: Testing Methods and Results. Charles A. Winter and Lars Flataker.....	99
XIII. Correlation between Anticonvulsant Activity and Plasma Concentration of Bromide. M. Singh Grewal, Ewart A. Swinyard, Howard V. Jensen and Louis S. Goodman.....	109
XIV. The Chemical Measurement of Histamine in Blood Plasma and Cells. Oliver H. Lowry, Helen Tredway Graham, Frances B. Harris, Martha K. Priebat, Ansel R. Marks and Robert U. Bregman.....	116

NUMBER 2, OCTOBER, 1954

XV. Influence of Insulin on Action of Cardiac Glycosides on the Intact Embryonic Chick Heart. Alexander C. Keyl and Carl A. Dragstedt.....	129
XVI. The Excretory Products of Digoxin in the Rat. E. E. Shepherd, R. H. Thorp and S. E. Wright.....	133
XVII. The Nature of the Reflex Vasodilatation Induced by Epinephrine. Carl C. Gruhzt, Walter A. Freyburger and Gordon K. Moe.....	138
XVIII. Modification of Traumatic Shock by Adrenergic Blocking Agents. E. Z. Levy, W. C. North and J. A. Wells.....	151
XIX. Distribution and Fate of Morphine in Non-Tolerant and Tolerant Dogs and Rats. L. A. Woods.....	158
XX. Studies on the Anti-Hypertensive Action of 2,3-Diarylalkanonitriles. F. M. Sturtevant, F. J. Saunders and W. E. Hambourger.....	176

XXI. The Antagonism of Ergot Alkaloids towards the Inhibitory Response of the Isolated Rabbit Intestine to Epinephrine and Norepinephrine. E. Rothlin, H. Konzett and A. Cerletti.....	185
XXII. The Effect of N-Demethylation on Certain Pharmacologic Actions of Morphine, Codeine, and Meperidine in the Mouse. Jack W. Miller and Hamilton H. Anderson.....	191
XXIII. The Nephrotoxic Action of Sodium Tetrathionate. J. Palmer Saunders and J. Henry Wills.....	197
XXIV. The Action of Epinephrine on the Anaerobic or the Iodoacetate-Treated Rat's Diaphragm. Sydney Ellis and Sibyl B. Beckett.....	202
XXV. The Selective Anti-Cholinergic Activity of Aliphatic Tris-Quaternary Ammonium Compounds. C. J. Kensler, C. L. Zirkle, A. Matallana and G. Condouris.....	210
XXVI. Comparison of the Blockade Produced by Dibenzylamine, Lidar, Tolazoline and Phentolamine of the Vasomotor Responses in Skin Induced by Sympathetic Nerve Stimulation with the Blockade of its Responses to L-Epinephrine and L-Norepinephrine. Harold D. Green, John A. MacLeod, David A. Anderson and Adam B. Denison, Jr.....	218
XXVII. Studies on the Toxicity and Pharmacological Actions of Bis(Dimethylamido) Fluorophosphate (BFP). Arthur J. Okinaka, John Doull, Julius M. Coon and Kenneth P. DuBois.....	231
XXVIII. Pharmacological Studies of Mixtures of Narcotics and N-Allylnormorphine. Peter D. Orahovats, Charles A. Winter and Edward G. Lehman.....	246
XXIX. N-Alkylsulfamylbenzoic Acids: Spectrophotometric Determination of a Series from P-Sulfamylbenzoic Acid through N-(Di-n-Propylsulfamyl)-Benzoic Acid, Benemid, in Plasma and Urine. Elizabeth K. Tillson, Nancy W. Pusey and Karl H. Beyer.....	252
XXX. The Action of Acetylcholine and Eserine on Spontaneous Muscular Movement in Fish Embryos. Floyd J. Brinley.....	257

NUMBER 3, NOVEMBER, 1954

XXXI. Abstinence Syndrome in Dogs after Chronic Barbiturate Medication. H. F. Fraser and Harris Isbell.....	261
XXXII. The Influence of Cortisone on the Nucleoproteins of Certain Normal and Malignant Mouse Tissues. Allan D. Bass and A. Hope McArdle.....	268
XXXIII. Reactions of Dibenamine and Some Congeners with Substances of Biological Interest in Relation to the Mechanism of Adrenergic Blockade. Stewart C. Harvey and Mark Nickerson.....	274
XXXIV. Failure of a Tyrosine-Containing Mixture to Influence the Production of Epinephrine in Experimental Animals. Peter V. Lee.....	291
XXXV. Pharmacologic Properties of Cyclizine Hydrochloride (Marezine). Stata Norton, K. I. Colville, Amos E. Light, A. L. Wnuck, R. V. Fanelli and E. J. de Beer.....	297
XXXVI. The Analgesic Effectiveness of Codeine and Meperidine (Demerol). Louis Lasagna and Henry K. Beecher.....	306
XXXVII. Effect of Diuretics on Experimental Hypertension in the Rat. F. M. Sturtevant and Nancy Hansen.....	312
XXXVIII. A Comparative Study on Some Aspects of the Pharmacology of Diphenhydramine and Chemically Related Compounds. Charles R. Ensor, David Russell and Graham Chen.....	318
XXXIX. The Origin of Streptomycin-Dependent Variants of Escherichia Coli. Avram Goldstein.....	326
XL. Studies on Veratrum Alkaloids. XIX. The Action of Veratramine upon Cardioacceleration Caused by Ephedrine, Tyramine, Phenylephrine and Isopropylarterenol. Otto Krayer and Paula Ourisson.....	341

XL I. The Analgesic Effectiveness of Nalorphine and Nalorphine-Morphine Combinations in Man. Louis Lasagna and Henry K. Beecher.....	356
XL II. The Effect of Mephentermine on Hypodynamic and Arrhythmic Isolated Frog Hearts. Jerome M. Glassman and Joseph Seifter.....	364
XL III. Effect of Elimination of Hepatic Circulation on Cyclopropane-Epinephrine Ventricular Tachycardia and Arterial Plasma Potassium in Dogs. G. S. O'Brien, C. H. Eid, Quillian R. Murphy, Jr. and W. J. Meek.....	374
XL IV. The Relation between the Structure of Halogenated Benzoic Acids and the Depletion of Adrenal Ascorbic Acid Content. J. Maxwell Little, Eugene R. Strader and Edward B. Truitt, Jr.....	378
XL V. The Effect of $\beta$ -Diethylaminoethyl-diphenylpropylacetate Hydrochloride on the Action of a Series of Barbiturates and C. N. S. Depressants. Leonard Cook, Edward Macko and E. J. Fellows.....	382
XL VI. Dorsal Root Ganglion Blockade during Threshold Segmental Spinal Anesthesia in Man. M. Jack Frumin, Herman Schwartz, J. Burns, Bernard B. Brodie and E. M. Papper.....	387

NUMBER 4, DECEMBER, 1954

XL VII. The Action of Phosphorylated Hesperidin on Blood Coagulation. Rene Bourgain, Cecil Symons, Margaret Todd and Irving S. Wright.....	393
XL VIII. The Analeptic Action of 1- n -Butylamino-3- p -Toluidino-2-Propanol (W181) in Sleep or Paralysis Produced by Certain Central Nervous System Depressants. F. M. Berger and T. E. Lynes.....	399
XL IX. Some Effects of N-Methyl- $\alpha$ -Phenylsuccinimide (Milontin) on the Central Nervous System. William H. Funderburk and Roscoe T. Woodcock.....	404
L. The Pharmacological Properties of 2-Methyl-2- n -Propyl-1,3-Propanediol Dicarbamate (Miltown), a New Interneuronal Blocking Agent. F. M. Berger.....	413
LI. Fibrillation and Defibrillation in Dogs after Chloroform and Epinephrine. A. E. Dyer and J. K. W. Ferguson.....	424
LII. The Physiological Disposition of Lidocaine and its Comparison in Some Respects with Procaine. Chen-Yü Sung and Aldo P. Truant.....	432
LIII. Cardiovascular and Oxytotoxic Actions of a Series of Quinoline Derivatives. Kazuya Kamijo and George B. Koelle.....	444
LIV. Comparison of the Potency of Dibenzylamine, Ilidar, Phentolamine (Regitine) and Tolazoline (Priscoline) in Blocking the Vasoconstrictor Responses in Canine Muscle to Lumbar Sympathetic Stimulation and to Intra-Arterial Injections of L-Epinephrine and of L-Norepinephrine. Harold D. Green, A. B. Denison, Jr., William O. Williams, Jr., Alfred H. Garvey and Charles G. Tabor.....	462
LV. Enhancement of the Action of Certain Analgetic Drugs by $\beta$ -Diethylaminoethyl-diphenylpropylacetate Hydrochloride. Leonard Cook, Geraldine Navis and Edwin J. Fellows.....	473
LVI. A Study of the Effects of Valmid, a Non-Barbiturate Central Nervous System Depressant, in Humans. Charles M. Gruber, Jr., Kenneth G. Kohlstaedt, Richard B. Moore and F. B. Peck, Jr.....	480
LVII. The Metabolism and Contraction of Cat Heart Muscles as Affected by Drugs. Kwang Soo Lee.....	484
LVIII. The Presence of Aspirin in Human Plasma after Oral Administration. H. George Mandel, Nicholas M. Cambosos and Paul K. Smith.....	495
LIX. Action of K-Strophanthin on Potassium Leakage from Frog-Sartorius Muscle. Hans Jürg Schatzmann and Peter N. Witt.....	501
LX. Index.....	509
