!!!RATS!!!

CARDIAC OUTPUT BY THERMODILUTION

"CARDIOMAX" model II-R is the only computer which can measure cardiac output of rats (and also guinea pigs, rabbits, dogs, chickens, humans and horses). For rats, it uses unique Columbus Instruments thermodilution microprobes 1/3 mm in size!

It also measures systolic, diastolic and mean blood pressures and heart rate up to 1000 beats/minute. Stroke volumes is also automatically computed.

Why Measure Cardiac Output of Rats?

Development of salt sensitive and salt resistive strains of rats provided inexpensive models for studying hypertension. Dynamics of rat circulatory system is similar to dogs or humans. Studies on rats cost only a fraction of studies using dogs.

Automatic Measurements Without Supervision

All parameters (cardiac output, stroke volume, three blood pressures, blood temperature, heart rate, time of day) can automatically be measured periodically and printed when using "CARDIOMAX-II-R" with Columbus Instruments Automatic Injector and Printer.

KEEPING CURRENT

... is it important to you?

Two journals that guarantee you'll be told what's happening
NOW in pharmacology, physiology, and biochemistry.

PHARMACOLOGICAL REVIEWS

A Publication of the American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics, Inc.

Editor: James A. Bain, Ph.D.,
Emory University

Pharmacological Reviews is a showcase journal for ideas that would otherwise be buried in the mass of pharmacological literature. Important review papers on the current status of a given topic are allotted plenty of space (from 10 to 40 pages) to exhaustively cover that topic. A fine balance is achieved in these articles, which are written in a clear, simple and concise fashion so as to be intelligible to non-specialists, yet are precise and detailed enough to be of great interest to experts in the field.

At various times, Pharmacological Reviews has addressed such subjects as biochemical and cellular pharmacology, drug metabolism and disposition, renal pharmacology, neuropharmacology, behavioral pharmacology, clinical pharmacology, and toxicology. Designed specifically as a medium through which those interested in these topics can communicate directly, Pharmacological Reviews serves the entire pharmacological community and is vital reading for physiologists, pharmacologists, and biological chemists.

THE JOURNAL OF PHARMACOLOGY AND EXPERIMENTAL THERAPEUTICS

A Publication of the American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics, Inc.

Editor: Eva King Killam, PhD,
School of Medicine, University of California, Davis

Founded by John J. Abel in 1909.

this is one of the most prestigious journals in scientific research. Publishing original research articles on all aspects of the interactions of chemical and biological systems, The Journal of Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics is extremely useful for the academic or clinical pharmacologist. In addition, it has broad relevance for pharmaceutical research laboratories and anesthesiologists. Readers will find full coverage of autonomic, behavioral, cardiovascular, cellular, clinical, developmental, gastrointestinal, immuno-, neuro-, pulmonary, and renal pharmacology. Other areas include analgesia, drug abuse, drug metabolism and distribution, chemotherapy, and toxicology. Each issue of this monthly periodical averages over 200 pages and presents the best in research being published in pharmacology and therapeutics.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF PHARMACEUTICAL RESEARCH

ROSS LABORATORIES is a division of Abbott Laboratories and a manufacturer of "Similac" infant formula and other nutritional and pharmaceutical products.

Responsibilities for this position will include collaboration on all free clinical studies and design, co-monitor a variety of clinical studies that will allow successful marketing of new pharmaceutical products, and to design and co-monitor clinical studies which will support marketing of established pharmaceutical products. The selected individual will also collaborate with drug safety and other persons specifically involved in pre-clinical and clinical research programs for both old and new products.

The programs include pathology/toxicology work, animal model efficacy studies and human testing phase I through phase IV.

Qualified candidates must possess at least 3 years pharmaceutical experience in planning and conducting research and evaluating new product opportunities. Familiarity with FDA regulations and knowledge of basic nutrition or nutritional support team is desirable. Pharm. D., PhD in Pharmacology or related life science is preferred. Good writing and organizational skills is required.

Ross offers an excellent salary and a full benefits package that includes profit sharing and comprehensive insurance. For confidential consideration, submit your resume in confidence to:

Paul Stewart, Employment Manager

The Journal of Neuroscience the Official Journal of the Society for Neuroscience

You need The Journal of Neuroscience NOW, because there's no better way to keep up with crucial advances that affect YOUR work.

You need its interdisciplinary coverage, its scouting of findings in all areas of neuroscience. You'll appreciate the way it mirrors the objectives of the North American Society for Neuroscience, as well as the Societies in Europe and Japan. And the way it keeps you absolutely up-to-date, no matter where significant breakthroughs occur.
