Benefits for FASEB Society Scientists

The Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology is an organization of multiple member societies representing tens of thousands of life scientists. Working closely with member societies, FASEB staff provide strategic intelligence on policy developments, conduct policy research, and engage government and media relations.

HOW FASEB HELPS YOU

In addition to the benefits you receive from being a member in your own professional society, you also receive a variety of important benefits through your society’s membership in FASEB including:

- Access to FASEB’s Legislative Action Center
- FASEB’s Washington Update
- Subscription discounts for The FASEB Journal
- Members only online access to the FASEB Directory of Members
- CME at FASEB Summer Research Conferences and society meetings
- Career development resources
- Personal insurance programs
- Credit card and line of credit programs

Faculty Position in Clinical Pharmacology or Translational PK/PD

The Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences at the University of Kentucky, College of Pharmacy invites applications for a tenure/tenure-track position at the rank of Associate or Full Professor in the area of clinical pharmacology or translational pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics.

It is anticipated that the successful candidate will actively contribute to the research and teaching missions in the College and engage in vigorous research that leads to improved clinical outcomes. Candidates with novel drug discovery or evaluation platforms in the neurosciences or cancer will be given special consideration. Many opportunities exist for collaboration within the Department and with investigators in multidisciplinary centers including the Markey Cancer Center, Sanders-Brown Center on Aging, and the Spinal Cord and Brain Injury Research Center. The research program of the selected individual will benefit from state-of-the-art research facilities in the new 280,000 sq. ft. College of Pharmacy building scheduled for completion in 2010. Candidates with documented expertise in clinical pharmacology or translational PK/PD in either academic or industrial research settings, and sustained track records of extramural funding/scholarly output will be considered for this 12-month, state-funded appointment.

Please submit a letter of application describing career goals, curriculum vitae, synopsis of future research plans, and the names and contact information of at least three references to: Dr. Jim Pauly, Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, College of Pharmacy, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40536-0082 E-mail: jpauly@uky.edu, (859) 323-8184

Application review will continue until the position is filled. The University of Kentucky is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Employer and Educator.
