CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, MAY, 1943

I. Effect on the Electrical Activity of the Cortex of Certain Depressant and Stimulant Drugs—Barbiturates, Morphine, Caffeine, Benzodrine and Adrenalin. Frederic A. Gibbs and George L. Maltby .............................. 1

II. A Comparison of the Acute and Chronic Toxicity of Carbon Dioxide with Especial Reference to Its Narcotic Action. J. H. Barbour and M. H. Seegers ............................................. 11

III. Serial Determination of Cardiac Output (Ballistocardiogram) and Electrocardiogram in Normal Man after the Intravenous Administration of Purified Cardiac Glycosides. Ludwig W. Eichna, Harry Taube and Arthur C. deGraff .................................................. 22

IV. Reduction of Fluid Loss from Damaged (Burned) Tissues by a Barbiturate. Henry K. Beecher and Jane D. McCarrell ................................................................. 39

V. Sodium Succinate as an Antidote for Barbiturate Poisoning and in the Control of the Duration of Barbiturate Anesthesia. Samuel Soakin and Matthew Taubenhaus .................................................. 49

VI. The Chronic Toxicity of the Sulfonamides for the Growing Rat as Influenced by the Type of Diet, the Addition of Feces to the Diet, and Appetite. Jerome S. Harris and Henry I. Kohn .................................................. 56

VII. Studies on Ointments. I. Penetration of Various Ointment Bases. Ernest A. Strakosch ................................................................. 65

VIII. The Biological Assay of Posterior Pituitary Solution. R. Blackwell Smith, Jr., and Bert J. Vos, Jr. .................................................. 72

IX. The Chemical Nature of Compounds which Inhibit the Function of the Thyroid Gland. E. B. Astwood .................................................. 79

X. The Effect of High Fat Diet on Chronic Toxicity of Derris and Rotenone. Anthony M. Ambrose, Floyd DeEds and Alvin J. Cox, Jr. .................................................. 90

XII. Antipressor Effects of Orthoquinoid Epinephrine Derivatives in Experimental Hypertension in the Rat. Kurt A. Oster and Harry Sobotka .......... 100

NUMBER 2, JUNE, 1943

XIV. Anesthesia. VIII. The Anesthetic Action of Isopropenyl Methyl Ether. John C. Krantz, Jr., C. Jellef Carr, William E. Evans, Jr., and Sylvan E. Forman .................................................. 115

XVII. The Ineffectiveness of Adrenal Cortex Extracts in Standardized Hemorrhagic Shock. K. A. Huizenga, B. L. Brofman and C. J. Wiggers .......................... 130

XVIII. The Estimation of Quinine in Human Plasma with a note on the Estimation of Quinidine. Bernard B. Brodie and Sidney Udenfriend ........ 154

XIX. The Comparative Activity of Quinine, Quinidine, Cinchonine, Cinchonidine and Quinoidine against Plasmodium lofurae Infections of Pekin Ducklings. A. O. Seeler, E. Dusenberg and C. Malanga .......... 159
XX. Flavicin: an Antibacterial Substance Produced by an Aspergillus flavus.
Milton T. Bush and Andres Goth .................................................. 164

XXI. A Possible Method for the Determination of Prolonged Action of the Barbiturates. Versa V. Cole ................................. 170

XXIII. The Potency of a New Extract of Consolida majestia Leaves. III. Assays by the Papillary Muscle Procedure and the U.S.P. XII Cat Method.
James R. Weeks and Harald G. O. Holck ...................................... 180

XXIV. The Overt and Masked Manifestations of Folliculoid Hormones. Eleanor Clark and Hans Selye .................................................... 187

XXV. Dosage Relationships in Augmentation of Pituitary Gonadotropic Extract by Blood and Hemin. W. H. McShan, L. E. Casida and R. K. Meyer ... 197

XXVI. Studies on the Detoxication of Organic Arsenical Compounds. II. Correlation of the Quantity of p-Aminobenzoic Acid Required to Protect Rats against High Doses of Carbarsone and Arsanilic Acid. J. H. Sandground and Charles R. Hamilton ........................................... 203

NUMBER 3, JULY, 1943

XXVIII. The Effect of Sodium Diphenyl Hydantoinate (Dilantin Sodium) on the Utilization of Ascorbic Acid by Guinea Pigs. A. D. Emmett, Eva R. Hartzler and R. A. Brown .................................................. 215

XXIX. Studies on the Chemistry and Pharmacology of the Melanophore Hormone of the Pituitary Gland. Graham Chen and Eugene M. K. Geiling .... 222

XXX. Studies on Veratrum Alkaloids. III. Qualitative and Quantitative Differences in the Action of Cevine and Veratridine. Rafael Mendez and Gonzalo Montes ...................................................... 238

XXXI. Chronic Selenium Poisoning in Dogs and Its Prevention by Arsenic. Morris Rhian and Alvin L. Moxon ........................................ 249

XXXII. Dihydroxypropyl Bismuthate: Experimental Studies of a New Bismuth Compound. Larry M. Wheeler .......................................... 265

XXXIII. The Effect of Cholesterol Administration on Anesthesia. Francis F. Foldes and Henry K. Beecher ............................................. 276

XXXIV. The Treatment of Standardized and Graded Histamine Shock in Dogs with Solutions of Methyl Cellulose and S-Methyl Isothiourea Sulfate. W. C. Hueper and C. T. Ichniowski ............................................... 282

XXXV. Narcosis Induced by Carbon Dioxide at Low Environmental Temperatures. J. H. Barbour and M. H. Seever ...................................... 296

XXXVII. Studies on Antimalarial Drugs. The Distribution of Quinine in the Tissues of the Fowl. F. E. Kelsey, Frances K. Oldham and E. N. K. Geiling .... 314

NUMBER 4, AUGUST, 1943

XXXVIII. Blood Pressure and Respiratory Changes Produced by Strychnine Convulsions. B. E. Abreu and R. A. Woodbury ......................... 321

XXXIX. Effect of Cocaine on the Inactivation of Epinephrine and Sympathin.
Clara Torda .................................................................................. 331

XL. The Influence of Low Concentrations of Cocaine on the Metabolism of Phenol. Clara Torda .......................................................... 336
