

CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, JANUARY, 1948

I. Action of Pyridine and Some Derivatives of Pyridine-3-carboxylic Acid on Neuromuscular Transmission. F. Valenzuela and F. Huidobro.....	1
II. The Effects of Iodides, l-Thiosorbitol, and Twenty-five Other Compounds on Alphanaphthylthiourea (Antu) Toxicity in Rats. Bertram J. Meyer and Leonard Karel.....	15
III. Determination of the Therapeutic, Irregularity, and Lethal Doses of Cardiac Glycosides in the Heart-Lung Preparation of the Dog. Alfred Farah and George Maresh.....	32
IV. The Absorption, Distribution and Excretion of Streptomycin. E. K. Marshall, Jr.....	43
V. The Metabolic Fate of Chloral Hydrate. Thomas C. Butler.....	49
VI. The Effects of Analgesic Drugs upon Excised Frog and Terrapin Hearts and Upon the Terrapin Cardiac Vagus Nerve. Charles M. Gruber and Goldie Freedman Keyser.....	59
VII. The Influence of Atropine and Scopolamine on the Central Effects of DFP. W. Clarke Wescoe, R. E. Green, B. P. McNamara, and Stephen Krop..	63
VIII. The Influence of Sulfhydryl Compounds of Diuresis and Renal and Cardiac Circulatory Changes Caused by Mersalyl. Alfred Farah and George Maresh.....	73
IX. The Effects of Single Doses of 6-Dimethylamino-4,4-Diphenyl-3-Heptanone (Amidone, Methadon, or '10820') on Human Subjects. Harris Isbell, Anna J. Eisenman, Abraham Wikler, and Karl Frank.....	83
X. The Biological Assay of Histamine and Diphenhydramine Hydrochloride (Benadryl-Hydrochloride). Graham Chen, Charles R. Ensor and Isabel G. Clarke.....	90
XI. The Determination and The Urinary Excretion of 6-Dimethylamino-4,4-diphenyl-3-heptanone Hydrochloride (Amidone). Georg Cronheim and Palmer A. Ware.....	98

NUMBER 2, FEBRUARY, 1948

XII. Tetraethylammonium Chloride $[(C_2H_5)_4NCl]$. Acute and Chronic Toxicity in Experimental Animals. O. M. Gruhzt, R. A. Fiskén and B. J. Cooper.....	103
XIII. The Comparative Pharmacology of the N-Alkylarterenols. David F. Marsh, M. H. Pelletier and C. A. Ross.....	10
XIV. Influence of BAL on the Toxicity and Chemotherapeutic Activity of Mapharsen. N. Ercoli and William Wilson.....	8
XV. Curariform Activity of Quaternary Ammonium Iodides Derived from Cinchona Alkaloids. David F. Marsh and M. H. Pelletier.....	121
XVI. Diuretic Action of Formoguanamine in Normal Persons. Werner L. Lipschitz and Edgar Stokey.....	127
XVII. Observations on the Pharmacology of the Isomers of Hexachlorocyclohexane. Bernard P. McNamara and Stephen Krop.....	131
XVIII. The Treatment of Acute Poisoning Produced by Gamma Hexachlorocyclohexane. Bernard McNamara and Stephen Krop.....	140
XIX. The Effect of Calcium on the Cardiovascular Stimulation Produced by Acetylcholine. Bernard McNamara, Stephen Krop and Elizabeth A. McKay.....	147
XX. Inhibition of the Cholinesterase Activity of Human Blood Plasma and	153

Erythrocyte Stromata by Alkylated Phosphorus Compounds. Ralph W. Brauer.....	162
XXI. On the Pharmacology of Hexaethyl Tetraphosphate. Conrado Dayrit, Clayton H. Manry and M. H. Seevers.....	173
XXII. The Effect of Various Anesthetics and Decerebration on the CO ₂ Stimulating Action on Respiration in Cats. S. C. Wang and L. F. Nims....	187
XXIII. Investigation of Some Newer Sulfonamides as Intestinal Chemotherapeutic Agents. H. J. Florestano and M. E. Bahler.....	196
NUMBER 3, MARCH, 1948
XXIV. The Vasopressor Activity of Some New Orally Active Sympathomimetic Amines. O. H. Siegmund, V. L. Nash and H. R. Granger.....	207
XXV. Acute and Chronic Toxicity of an Aliphatic Amine, Methylamino-isooctene (Octin). R. P. Walton, C. B. Preacher and W. M. Cannon....	214
XXVI. Streptomycin in the Blood: Chemical Determinations after Single and Repeated Intramuscular Injections. George E. Boxer, Viola C. Jelinek, Ralph Tompsett, Rebeckah DuBois and Ann O. Edison.....	226
XXVII. Pharmacological Studies of d-Tubocurarine and Other Curare Fractions. Guy M. Everett.....	236
XXVIII. Pharmacological Properties of a New Antihistaminic, 2-Methyl-9-Phenyl-2,3,4,9-Tetrahydro-1-Pyridindene (Thephorin) and Derivatives. G. Lehmann.....	249
XXIX. The Quantitative Evaluation of Spasmolytic Drugs in Vitro. Lloyd C. Miller, T. J. Becker and M. L. Tainter.....	260
XXX. Observations on the Comparative Pharmacologic Actions of 6-Dimethylamino-4,4-Diphenyl-3-Heptanone (Amidone) and Morphine. J. K. Finnegan, H. B. Haag, P. S. Larson and M. L. Dreyfuss.....	269
XXXI. The Effect of Ether and Dial-Urethane Anesthesia on the Passage of Sulfathiazole into the Cerebrospinal Fluid. R. S. Teague and Mervin Perdue.....	277
XXXII. The Pharmacology of Compounds Related to β -2,5-Dimethoxy Phenethyl Amine. I. The Ethyl, Isopropyl and Propyl Derivatives. Axel M. Hjort, Lowell O. Randall and Edwin J. De Beer.....	283
XXXIII. Anticonvulsant Action of Isopropyl Alcohol. Nai Chu, R. L. Driver and P. J. Hanzlik.....	291
XXXIV. Goitrogenic Compounds: Pharmacological and Pathological Effects. Joseph Seifter and William E. Ehrich.....	303
XXXV. A Study of the Effects of 1-Amino-1-Phthalidyl-Propane Hydrochloride on the Excised and Intact Intestine and Uterus. Charles M. Gruber and Goldie Freedman Keyser.....	315
XXXVI. Studies with Tetrazole Derivatives. IV. Some Pharmacologic Properties of Aminomethyl Tetrazoles. E. G. Gross and R. M. Featherstone.....	323
XXXVII. Studies with Tetrazole Derivatives. V. Some Pharmacologic Properties of Aminophenyl Tetrazoles. E. G. Gross and R. M. Featherstone.....	330
XXXVIII. Influence of the Autonomic Nervous System on the Intestinal Absorption of a Hypertonic Solution of Glucose. F. Huidobro, R. Valdés and M. Dávila.....	336
XXXIX. Effect of Acidosis and Anoxia on the Concentration of Quinacrine and Chloroquine in Blood. Joseph W. Jailer, Charles G. Zubrod, Morris Rosenfeld and James A. Shannon.....	345
XL. Chemotherapeutic Studies of 4-Amino-4'-Propylamino-Diphenylsulfone Alone and in Combination with Sulfadiazine in Experimental Pneumococcus Infection. J. McBroom Junge and M. I. Smith.....	352

NUMBER 4, APRIL, 1948

XLI. Some Effects of Stilbestrol and Its Monomethyl Ether in the Immature Male Rat. Virginia M. Fiske and Nicholas T. Werthessen	363
XLII. The Pharmacology of Compounds Structurally Related to Hydroxytyramine. A. M. Lands, V. L. Nash, B. L. Dertinger, H. R. Granger, and H. M. McCarthy	369
XLIII. Respiratory, Electroencephalographic, and Blood Gas Changes in Progressive Barbiturate Narcosis in Dogs. Roy L. Swank and Joseph M. Foley	381
XLIV. The Efficacy of BAL (2,3-Dimercaptopropanol) in the Treatment of Experimental Lead Poisoning in Rabbits. Frederick G. Germuth, Jr., and Harry Eagle	397
XLV. Histamine Shock in Mice Sensitized with Hemophilus Pertussis Vaccine I. A. Parfentjev and Mary A. Goodline	411
XLVI. Acute Vascular Tolerance to Morphine, Isonipecaine (Demerol), and Methadon (Amidone) in the Dog. F. E. Shideman and H. T. Johnson	414
XLVII. Inhibition of Pancreatic Vacuolization. Andrew L. Tucker	421
XLVIII. An Improved Colorimetric Method for the Estimation of Histamine. Sanford M. Rosenthal and Herbert Tabor	425
XLIX. The Response of Isolated Hypodynamic Myocardium to Inotropic Drugs. Louis J. Sciarini, Elizabeth M. Ackerman and William T. Salter	432
L. Isodynamic Equivalents of Digitoxin Congeners as Tested on Hypodynamic Myocardium. Wallace F. White, Julius Belford and William T. Salter	443
LI. The Action of P-Aminosalicylic Acid (Pas) in Experimental Tuberculosis. W. T. McClosky, M. I. Smith and J. E. G. Frias	447
LII. The Curariform Activity of d-N-Methyl-Isochondrodendrine and d-O-Methyl-N-Methyl-Isochondrodendrine. David F. Marsh and M. H. Pelletier	454
LIII. Index	459
